Mr. William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
CIA,
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I am writing to you on behalf of a delegation of European military and political figures who are coming to the United States in early July and would very much value the opportunity to meet with you.

This delegation includes some of the most outspoken proponents of a strengthened Atlantic Alliance; they will be here to address a conference in opposition to the "decoupling" of Western Europe and in favor of U.S.-European cooperation around the Strategic Defense Initiative. They would like to convey to you their perception of the situation in their respective nations regarding the potential for decoupling, and to explain their efforts to counter this.

The members of this delegation, whose names and positions are noted on the attached sheet, will be available to meet on Thursday and Friday, July 5 and 6.

I would appreciate your contacting me or my colleague Laura Cohen at the number below regarding this request. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Robert Greenberg
